As requested,

HERE is my sysex for the machinedrum dj project 01.

It is available directly in the SANDBOX area of the FILES section.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

peace

Excellent jd! Thanks for sharing, looking forward to checking it out.

BTW, I didn't want to clutter up the livesets thread with comments, but I really dug the set you laid down using the Project patterns. Lots of wild reimaginings of the tracks combined into a moody, introspective set.

It'll be cool to dig deeper into your process of creating it when I get time to upload your sysex and focus for awhile. One of the many things I hoped the Project would allow us to do is learn from each other, & get inspired on levels technical as well as artistic...posting your files is gonna help with that for sure ;)
