I've just realised I have really been inconsiderate in the for sale thread.
I'm happy to have my posts merged.
Sorry, I wasn't thinking.
Lewis @ awave clouded my consideration.

Actually, you know what? I'd say leave it as is. I think you have a better chance of drawing attention to individual items when listed separately, so my vote is that it's fine.

If others disagree I'm of course not trying to impose my view.

Now I've got a hangover and my mouth feels furry
Anyway, looks like half the stuff sold overnight, so when I get confirmation I'll post in the thread and you can delete it immediately.

Analogue_steve now baby.
No menace, just a gear dealer to the masses
