
instagr/am/bient: 25 sonic postcards

Posted by earsmack - 2011/12/29 22:27

I had the pleasure of being part of a wonderful project that was released yesterday. My track is all OT except for the fretless bass melody.

All the details (downloads, awesome PDF booklet and soundcloud links) are here:

Congratulations. Your track is great (and the most of this compilation aswell!).

It really should be released as a digipack album!! :(

See you!

Thanks for listening - glad you all are digging it. @disquiet is the man behind it all and deserves the most credit for pulling it together so quickly and putting out such an awesome release.

Deluxe edition with small booklet including all the pictures !

Earsmack, congrats on being part of this. I secretly wish I was in there too.

Thanks @emnine - my guess is there will be another - it seems to be pretty popular - lots of positive comments.

Just to be clear in case it wasn't - a 50+ page PDF is available on the disquiet site with all the images. Also, if you download the zip of the audio and import into iTunes all the metadata is setup so the images appear for each track.

Great project! Digging this...

Emnine: ditto. I should be in for the next one.

Fantastic track Joe! ...just way too short, but I guess limits had to be imposed.

Great looking project, I've grabbed the booklet and all. Thanks!

Must admit to having become an iPhone photo junky myself... Hipstamatic, IncrediBooth, 8mm, Instagram, Camera+, PhotoStudio, GIF Shop. :)

Thanks everyone - Thanks Matt! I'm earsmack on Instagram - not sure if I found you there or not yet. But yes, it's a neat site and the project was a lot of fun.

The tracks were limited to 3 minutes - hard to do with ambient but very "Brian Eno" so it's all good! :-)

Enjoyed your track, & hoping I get a chance to listen to the whole collection soon.
