
Dataline on Elektron Trinity @ Elektron-Users Event {Video}

Posted by dataline - 2012/02/01 07:29

So here it is for the people who missed it :) It was a great night with awesome music and people! Thanks to everyone involved! I am so happy to meet you people!

Special thanks to Koshimazaki for recording the audio!

Machinedrum and monomachine going into the OT. Both machines are following program changes from the OT.

Enjoy!

Sounds lovely! I really have to get myself an MD+OT, they seem to compliment the Monomachine so well.

Thanks for checking out guys!

I have been thinking of uploading the audio files as tracks...I will do it sometime this week as couple of you mentioned it :)

I'd love to get a full length 320kbps MP3 of the whole set, or a wav and I'll convert it myself.

Nice one.

Uploading wavs to bandcamp is a pita, takes ages if you have a lot of tracks. ;)

Oh.
My.
God.

This must be the best thing IÂ’ve ever heard/seen with the trinity. I mean.. Its just sick!!!!
Fantastic in every way. Love the sounds at 12.00 minutes. Absolutly great.

That's really the nicest Mono usage I've seen in any video so far, nice!

god's own balls this is sublime!:woohoo:not so much of a fan of too much beat repeat to be honest. some places it works for me, and others that "ffs someone give that cd a clean" sound grates on me after a while. hey, but each to their own. your groove and texture is so deep and good. i love the shades of BOC here and there in the harmonies and the melodic counterpoint from the mono is so beautiful i can live with it :lol:

sorry to have missed the gig. will definitely try and be in town for the next one.
