
Uk , do you want to be on my radio show?

Posted by simple - 2012/04/28 22:35

Hi,

I have been offered a fortnightly slot on Nakedbeatz.com. It's primarily Drum n Bass but I have told them my shows will be very diverse.

I did a few shows for them a while back, covering for a mate. They liked what I did and offered me a permanent slot every other Thursday 8-10pm.

I will be working towards live music, anything goes, I have a lot of mates up for doing something.

So this is an informal invite, the show will be running from my house, London SE8, excellent transport (train, tube, bus and DLR all near). I don't want any old tom, dick or harry coming around. Get in touch if your interested and we can discuss, get to know a bit more about each other etc. The shows start May and go out live, I will keep you all posted with links so you can check out the show and give my offer some thought.

Also, if any of you have any objections to me playing some of your stuff, let me know.

I will be playing stuff from an ipod, if anyone wants to share tracks off souncloud etc. If I like I'll play, let me know.

Shows plan to be as eclectic as possible

thanks

Ok guys, your all in, consider it done.

Make sure you all tune in, will post up link. Have been told the show can go in any direction as long as people are listening.

Might scare the usual drum n bass heads off, so need to pull in more followers.

That's great! How many times have I listened to some random podcast and discovered an amazing artist I'd never have heard of otherwise? Often enough to be eternally thankful that people with good ears make the effort to put sets together.

I'm nowhere near London but if any of this catches your ear feel free to use it. Good luck and congratulations on the show!

Excellent, please if your stuffs not downloadable on Soundcloud can you let me download it as mp3. My soundcloud is as stated I will be playing tracks off ipod (only usually play vinyl) if this works well and gets good response I may invest in a dj controller for my mac.

<http://soundcloud.com/mr-bloor>

I've had mares in the past running windows media encoder on an intel mac so have got a cheap ebay pc to encode, only have 1 screen though so mac sitting idle for the show. hence I cant play stuff off soundcloud during the show.

Hope this makes sence.

Thanks, show looking to be a week today, will post link up, watch this space.

I broadcast on nice cast.

It will only serve a few mates but it's stable, this could be used to allow people to stream live to you in the studio and push it on.

Right, here we go.....

My profile on nakedbeatz, enjoy

<http://nakedbeatz.com/nbprofile/simple/>

The first show is tonight 8pm - 10pm GMT

I will be playing a right old mix of electronica, some tunes from you guys, some obscure releases some avinit tunes, some wierd moments.

It will be a strange journey, never dull.

Please tune in the station has given me free reign, it would be great to attract new listeners so please send on the details to all your mates.

The show will be broadcast live every two weeks from today, thanks all those who have sent messages regarding live sets, all those that are interested in playing, I am based in SE London. I will be in touch regarding bookings, I have been extremely busy building a garden for the queen (sad excuse).

Tune in, check it out.

I will be providing a pdf track list soon.

Thanks:)
