Actual Memories â€” A compilation in memory of Ryan Faubion

Â»Actual MemoriesÂ« is a compilation of songs dedicated to the memory of Ryan Faubion who passed on earlier this year.

As the former administrator of Elektron-Users.com, Ryan Faubion will leave behind an online community that encompasses his desire to bring artists together. Ryan's dedication to and belief in the community of artists on Elektron-Users.com was reflected in his ready willingness to lend a hand and to connect people. From musicians, tinkerers, and device designers to noise-makers, sound-sculptors and Elektron-users, Ryan fostered, maintained and developed a community that connected, and will continue connecting, artists from across the world. A talented graphic designer and musician in his own right, Ryan's passion for bringing people together was rivaled only by his love for art.

As a tribute to Ryan's enduring influence and in thanks, the Elektron-Users.com community presents Â»Actual MemoriesÂ«. All of the funds collected from the sale of the compilation will go to Ryan's family.

yep - gonna hit this on the D/L myself imminently & start spreading the word too...

Thanks again to all those who put so much effort in to make it happen.

No thanks to myself for ruining it with my feeble musical effort... :laugh:

Can't wait to check out everyone's submission to this. oh - & Ryan : sending out vibes to you my man. Rest in peace.

Really great music! Will support! I'm sad to have never known Actual.. I got my first piece of gear shortly before he passed.

I wonder if it's worth while to share the MD/MNM (OT?) files on a donation basis as well. Not sure how the artists would feel about that though.. just a thought.

Regardless, wonderful job everyone!

Downloading now...

.. a quick bosh through the tracks on the bandcamp is fantastic, standard is outstanding.

It is a great feeling to be a part of this community that without Ryan wouldn't have existed. Thanks Ryan.

I'm very happy to see this compilation come true. I think Ryans goal regarding the elektron-users was to estabish a social community that would raise above what is usually a state of internet communities. Putting this release out without his help is ultimately a proof of his success - elektron-users is alive! I'm sorry you didn't see this friend, but at the same time I feel warm, because I know you succeeded.

Thanks for those too who did all the hard work regarding the release.

So,

I have a little story to tell, bare with me.

Yesterday was a great day, because this compilation in memorial was finally released.
Hopefully the love and attention given to it will radiate to the listeners and all of the Faubion family.

On this very same day I was digging in the garden of my family home.
Just over ten years ago my dad passed away, but before that he had lost his wedding ring. He wasn't even sure where it may have gone.
My mother, had given up on the idea of ever finding it.

As I was digging a new planting bed, I was cleaning out the roots of an old hosta to reuse the soil...and what do i find....my dad's wedding ring.

I just thought it appropriate on this very day, being reflective on those lost and missed.

peace

i was going through a huge back log of old emails today just getting rid of all this stuff that was for some reason never deleted or archived and i came across a handful of emails w/ryan form 2009/2010 where we were talking about music and him being excited to release something.

made me happy to remember him this way but of course also sad to know he's gone.

glad this site and this release is here to honor his memory
