Pretty wordy review and I must confess to being rather pleased - 4.1 out of 5 for "The Desolate Sound of Extinction"

Review can be read here if anyone is interested -

Even mentions the use of Elektron Music Machines in the review B)

Excuse the off topic post but just wanted to share the excitement.

Will be interesting to see what Jeremy Reid of A Closer Listen has to say in his Electronic Observations Column next month.

Wicked review Oscar, good for you!

Just listened to Pt 1-3, great compositional skills & programming here, will be passing the word :)
