
Hook up on facebook / Soundcloud

Posted by RobbieNerve - 2011/11/28 16:06

Hey all,

I couldnt find a connect topic for soundcloud / facebook so I started one.

Just made an octatrack group on facebook

If you want to connect, just drop the url's to your pages and we can add eachother to build a network ;-).

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/RobbieNerve>

SoundCloud: <http://soundcloud.com/robbie-nerve>

Ustream.tv: <http://www.ustream.tv/user/RobbieNerve> (channel is <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/robbienerve-studiosession>)

I'd love to follow everybody's musical movements that way :).

.Robin

Nice!

I hooked up with a lot of EU soundclouders already, but fun to hear more of you.

My account is:

<http://soundcloud.com/binaural-1>

No OT material yet, but some MD and MnM stuff...

I tend to not get to the point of a finished track since the day my son saw daylight. How odd....)

You know I can't wait to go home and go after those witches... to get revenge for the werewolf curse :)

hmm, it has been running fine for me! they need a patch for auto saving every 10mins, so that you don't get carried away and die randomly just to track back the last hour...

Not seen any signs of werewolves or vampires yet... No rushing these kind of things though. :)

I get some bad slow down (fps drops) on entering towns sometimes, apparently it goes some way to solving that... or so i have read. :) You might be able to change the autosave timing in the menus somewhere, it does seem to autosave every so often if you haven't gone through a door or saved it in ages.

Right no more off topic!

How do you think I feel?! I don't own the game (yet) but damn near everyone around me is playing it constantly... the only stuff I've really heard any one talk about the past two weeks is all the cool shit they are doing in-game! Really sucks... the first 30'ish hours I already know like the back of my hand and I haven't even made a character yet. :P

www.soundcloud.com/thomachine actually got Skyrim as a birthdaygift from my girlfriend. But i did the most sensible thing. I exchanged it for another game thats not so timeconsuming. :) And a game she could enjoy aswell. That gave me some instant "studiotime". ;)

Me n the GF both got Skyrim on the same day, mine is for the ps3, hers for the PC.. no arguments. :) She's doing better than me i think. :(

Rubix, I'll add you next time I am on, managed to leave the bugger alone for the last couple of days. :)
