2013 Kansas City Electro Music Festival

Christian Birk (forum name RESET) and I will be performing at this tomorrow night. We go on @ 9pm and are doing a 100% improv live pa with 5 elektrons and an op1. The entire festival will be streamed live and links can be found on the site. This is an entire weekend dedicated to experimental electronic music and there are some great artist performing. Tune in and zone out with us.

Thanks,
D.
