
Monomachine came today

Posted by steevyhead - 2013/08/11 06:47

Had to go to a wedding today, and my monomachine was coming today....
I had to leave at 445 for the wedding, and fed ex always delivers in my neighborhood early.... By 1030-1100am.. So I get up.... Wait, and wait.... Finally the doorbell rings at 430, it's fed ex.
I open the box like a lunatic, plug it in to a crappy old amp to not waste time, turn it on BEEP BEEP. My girlfriends here "there's traffic so I came I little early.

I'm JONSING to leave now haha

Am I a jerk???

no way. i would have gotten "food poisoning". what an incredible machine sitting at home blinking happily waiting for you to play with it!
