I'm looking at a technics 1210 with a flight case for 350 usd. The only issue is that it doesn't have the head shell or a cartridge. Do you think this is a decent deal? How much would I have to throw down for a decent needle and headshell?

Here's a picture of it:

I called them and it's one of those pawn type shops so I'm not sure what to think about it.

if you can test it out and verify it works, I'd pay $350 for it no sweat.
