Those dirty spammers have taken to replying to legitimate threads with their spam, any users that notice this please reply to the thread in question and change the subject to SPAM FLAG and I'll delete them.

Ta

Spammers - don't waste your time, as soon as they are seen they will be deleted.

Talking about spam.. or at least out of place.. that video-link in the file-section.. its not that interesting at all.
just a jamsession by the looks of it..

I dont mind jamsessions, spend a great deal of time watching other people have fun.
saves me buying cd's.. but in the files section !?!
