
FS (UK): SOLD

Posted by grillpanda - 2013/08/14 03:11

Hey, Iâ€™m selling my MDUW+ MKII that I picked up through the forum from Nein a couple of months ago.

Scuff marks around the display in the photo are on the protective film.

Included is a UK power adapter, TM-1, manual, and a PL-1 protective cover.

Â£750 including shipping within the UK. (Iâ€™m in London if you want to pick it up instead.)

PM me if youâ€™re interested, thanks.

And hereâ€™s a smaller version of the photo that was too large to post:

You can see the original here to get a better idea of the scuff marks:

Your 'scuffs on the screen' looks to me like the plastic protective film might still be on there- be worth checking Rees nothing to peel back, its a fairly common thing that people haven't realised they ship with them on.

:blush:

It was indeed the protective film, so thanks for that.
