np, I can take it. :-D The MM does plenty of cool, strange stuff. This is from last night's tweaking:

In Case of Emergency

i appreciate the strangeness of the first track. that melody is the kind of thing that makes me feel like i've been at the doctor's office too long, or that i'm slightly going mad. :-D nice - that first one is hilarious! I am not sure if thats what elektron had in mind with this product but fuck it - that ruled!

I really dig the texture of the second one as well. Its not as monomachine soundy as the first one was - keep leaning in to this thing, you are gonna come up with some killer stuff!

PPP was funny as hell, man! Yowza! I was falling off the white neck of the pony for two minutes at least.

Man, you can get the funk with the beatBox, you just have to work it. Bravo!

Is there any post processing happening with these tracks?

Okay, I updated the song with an alternating second melody. I think it's some kind of therapy compared to my other material. Oh you'll be happy alright... I'll make you be happy. ;)

After recording, I run it through Tracktion Final Mix.

Thanks for listening!
