
"limited" Monomachine SFX-6

Has anyone else seen the new elektron homepage?
The right side has a pic of the MnM with a bubble.
Yesterday, inside the bubble said "cool".
Today, it says "limited".
Ya think it means they are going to discontinue the keyboard version?
The guys at nova said the sell way more of the tabletops - so it could be true?

I hope it's not too limited - I have the desktop right now, but at some point will want to add the keyboard version as well.

Maybe I'll have to do so sooner wrather than later? hmmm....

Maybe they mean "limited" in the sense of "you are limited to one note at a time (per track)!" I mean, that feature is right in the name: MONOMachine. I think elektron figured (correctly) that limitations stimulate creativity, and maybe this is something they want to point out in their bubble.
