The first person who sends me a cashier's check for $4,000 wins a free Monomachine! All late submissions will be returned to sender. I will go by the date I receive the check NOT the ship date, so make sure you send it next day air if you want to win this contest! Good luck!

I just sent payment via pigeon...you should get it in about a fortnight. As insurance, I sent one in a corked bottle...please await its arrival at the nearest river.

To date I have not received any submissions to this contest. I am a little shocked. It's not like you're sending me $4000 AND I'm charging you $1250 for my monomachine. The $4000 entry into the contest gets you a FREE monomachine. Why aren't you people jumping on this?
