for 3 demos from our forth-coming album
all comments appreciated

I'm playing NYC this monday if anyone's around. this one will be just Mono and guitar. live sequencing, synthesis, and guitar looping.
see announcement below .
cheers,
Jason

bells clanging will make its first NYC appearance on Monday, Nov 14.? Jason Starnes (ex-kids these days) meshes live synthesis with soaring melodies.? Think Kraftwerk covering early Built to Spill and vice-versa.

This free show starts at 8pm at Scenic, that amazing retro lounge in the?East Village w/ Good News Club.

Some pretty cool tracks, man. Keep it up. I would come check you out but I live in LA and I figure that drive would just be a killer. :lol:

Hey, these are cool tracks! You don't hear guitar with the Monomachine every day ;) I like the vocal harmonies on track 1, too.
